Now What?

What will the next year look like?

- Write all the issues that will be critical to faculty, students, colleges, and the system in the next year.
- Once the cards are complete, prioritize the issues from the most important to the lesser in significance.

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.
-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Personal Leadership Plan

Write your own definition of leadership.

Be the kind of leader that you would follow.

You gain strength, courage and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You must do the thing you think you cannot do.

—Eleanor Roosevelt

Your Leadership Plan

List 3 strengths you have as a leader and 3 challenges that you face.

List 2-3 “leading” actions you would like to take when you return to your campus.

List 2-3 area that you would like to get involved at the regional or state level.

List 2-3 accomplishments to be realized by spring 2016.

Before you are a leader, success is all about growing yourself. When you become a leader, success is all about growing others.

– Jack Welch

Final thought...

A bit of advice

Given to a young Native American

At the time of his initiation:

As you go the way of life,

You will see a great chasm. Jump.

It is not as wide as you think.

– Joseph Campbell
