

Welcome New Attendees! How To Bloom At Plenary

Karen Chow, Area B Representative

Cheryl Aschenbach, ASCCC Vice President

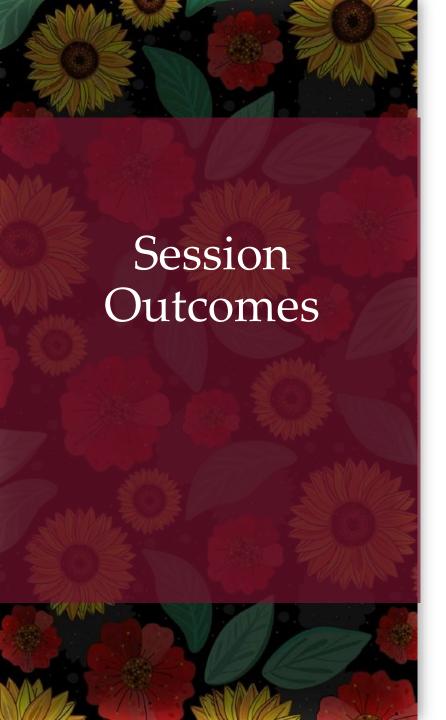

Executive Committee Members

Relations With Local Senates Committee Members

Session Description

For first-time attendees and delegates, plenary is a space that evokes a mix of emotions, such as excitement, confusion, and imposter syndrome, to name a few. Join us as presenters seek to create community and grounding through the sharing of experiences and storytelling, along with an overview of the plenary session as well as delegate roles and responsibilities, in hopes of empowering first-time attendees and delegates to maximize their learning and experience and BLOOM at Plenary!

Session attendees will:

- 1.Make personal connections with others new to the ASCCC Plenary
- 2. Understand the Role of the ASCCC & Plenary
- 3. Develop a breakout session attendance plan
- 4.Discuss the Resolutions and Elections Process
- 5. Examine the Disciplines List
- 6. Review the ASCCC Awards
- 7.Be provided additional ASCCC resources for plenary attendees

The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC):

- •Fosters the effective participation by community college faculty in all statewide and local academic and professional matters;
- Develops, promotes, and acts upon policies responding to statewide concerns;
- •Serves as the official voice of the faculty of California Community Colleges in academic and professional matters.

The ASCCC strengthens and supports the local senates of all California community colleges.

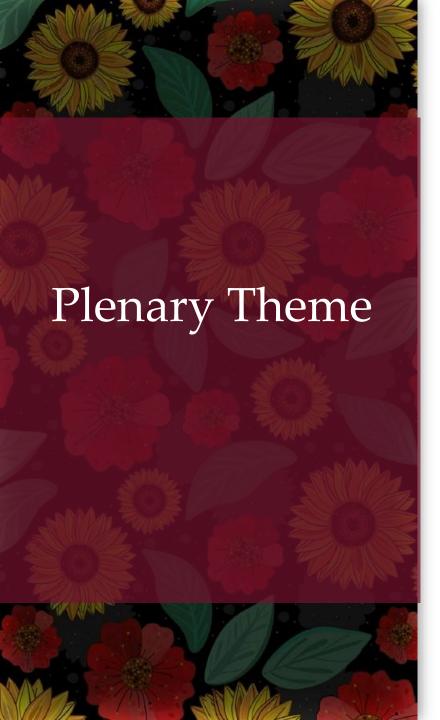

Purpose of Plenary

The general and breakout sessions permit local senates—their officers (who often also serve as their senate's official delegate), curriculum chairs, and other interested faculty & CCC system folks to:

- Be apprised about important topics and issues,
- Receive training to bolster the effectiveness of their senate,
- Select representatives and officers,
- Determine Senate positions and provide the Executive Committee its direction through the resolution and voting processes.

Executive Committee Elections --Held At Spring Plenary (not Fall)

Each year, the Executive Committee nominations process provides the ASCCC membership a direct voice in the organization's governance. The Executive Committee's composition and annual elections are part of the ASCCC's by-laws.

All candidates for election to the Executive Committee shall meet at least one of these criteria:

- 1) is a Delegate or a local senate president;
- 2) has within the last three years immediately preceding the election been a local senate president or an ASCCC Executive Committee member or officer; or
- 3) has been nominated by a resolution of a Member Senate. The minutes of the meeting at which that resolution was adopted must be submitted to the Elections Committee chair with the nomination of the individual.

For the spring 2023 term, the ASCCC will be conducting elections by online written ballot, using the software RankedVote. The elections will take place during the Saturday portion of the plenary session on April 22, 2023.
